

ART CHICAGO · STUDIO LA CITTÀ

27 - 30 April 2007 Booth 7- 6070

GABRIELE BASILICO - Montecarlo - 2006
salt silver print - 126 x 100 cm.

Studio la Città will be taking part in the Chicago art fair for the first time since 1999. The new direction has re-launched this fair which, until just a few years ago, was considered the most important in the USA. The gallery's plan for the event includes an important nucleus of such Italian artists as Gabriele Basilico, David Bramante, Pierpaolo Calzolari, Lucio Fontana, Piero Manzoni, and Ettore Spalletti. There will also be a selection of the gallery's "classic" artists as Stuart Arends, Herbert Hamak, Jacob Hashimoto, Izima Kaoru, and Hiroyuki Masuyama, as well as a small group of young artists with whom the gallery has begun to work recently: Beatrice Amrhein, Brian Alfred, Eelco Brand, Michael Light, Ashley Prine, and Timothy Tompkins.

This fair is taking place at an important time for the gallery which, on May 12th, will be inaugurating its new exhibition spaces in 21 Lungadige Galtarossa, Verona.
